

BIOGRAPHY OF KHUTSO NELSON RATLABALA

EARLY CHILDHOOD

Born in the year 1994 at a rural village of Mookho village in bolobedu Limpopo province South Africa.

Khutso Nelson Started his early childhood education at a primary school called Makgope primary from grade R till grade 6. After the death of his mother, in the year 2007 he moved to stay with his Grand-mother at a village called Ga-Matipane where he continued his primary at a primary school called Senopelwa Primary till grade 7.

HIGHSCHOOL AND TERTIARY EDUCATION

Khutso Nelson went to Molai Jubilee High School where he attended grade Eight (8) till he matriculated in the year 2013.

After his matric he went on to study for Financial Management course for three years at Letaba TVET College Tzaneen campus from 2014-2016.

During the course of studying, Khutso was part time news reporters at a local radio station .that's where the love of radio started to develop and he told himself that he want to pursue what he love.

In the year 2017 Khutso joined a local radio station as a full time news anchor and a field reporter as well as a current affairs producer and a weekend breakfast presenter.

Due to this growing love of radio Khutso left the radio to study Journalism NQF 5 in the year 2018 at Talent Development Academy in Acornhoek, Mpumalanga.

After he graduated his course he joined the local online magazine called U-Lead magazine as ahead of content. Presently Khutso Nelson is a Radio host at a radio called By The Grace Radio as a mid-morning show host called different colors one people.

Apart of doing radio and the likes, Khutso is an Usher, intercessor and peace loving kind a guy who believes in Jesus Christ our lord and savior.